Board Member Profile

The American Association of Cosmetology Schools (AACCS) seeks board members who internalize the core value of integrity and advocate for educational excellence. Further, board candidates must support the mission of the AACCS to make the hair, beauty and wellness profession a premier career of choice.

Board members ensure the effectiveness, growth, and integrity of the Association's objectives. As such, an emphasis is placed on seeking school/business owners and managers for participation on the Board of Directors.

In evaluating candidates for board service, the following criteria will be considered. Although candidates are not expected to meet all criteria, these criteria, along with consideration of board diversity, are to be given weight when identifying candidates.
